ISKO ARKO: Annual Review of Knowledge Organization
Zoom call May 31 / June 1, 2023

Agenda

1. Introductions (all)
2. Draft timeline (Jonathan)
3. Geographic coverage and editorial assignments (Jonathan)
4. Any other business (all)

Project goal

The goal of the ARKO project is to produce and publish an annual review of the global literature in the field of knowledge organization, broadly defined. The review will be made up of sections focusing on specific national/regional literatures written by local experts, and edited and compiled by an international board of co-editors working with two co-editors-in-chief. The review will be submitted for publication in English in Knowledge Organization, and for publication in Mandarin in a journal TBD.

Personnel

Co-editors-in-chief:
Jonathan Furner (University of California, Los Angeles)
Junzhi Jia (Renmin University of China, Beijing)
